WOOM!

NEWS FROM THE VALANGAVERSE

This is the most quarantined many of us have ever been and the old word for Lent Quaresima also signifies forty days.

The picture above depicts a car crash in Hells Kitchen recently. Last week we saw a pink Supermoon which rose over the world recently. Both are beautiful images. If Venerdi is the day of Love consecrated to Venus, Sabato is the Sabbath, holy to the Lord. Everyone on earth is waiting right now, waiting for the quarantine to be over but also our exile from paradise which will end when we really learn to love each other as we should.
